Larry Clark

I Used to Play: Trumpet Larry Clark
I Used to Play Trumpet is an innovative new book for adults looking to get back into playing their instruments of yesteryear. First and foremost, these books are meant to get people re-acquainted with their instruments by providing them with the types of music they want to play. Each contain a wide variety of songs in varying styles, including pop, jazz and classics, giving players countless hours of enjoyment. The enclosed CD contains audio MP3 files of complete performances of each song, plus versions of their accompaniments without the melody to make playing along even more satisfying. The printable PDF files of the piano parts on the CD can be used to play with a pianist friend, giving even more performance opportunities. I Used to Play Trumpet is just the jumpstart former players need to get comfortable with their instruments again.
