Book 2 of Behind Closed Doors

Billionaire Adam Sinclair and his personal assistant Alexis Hayes are on cloud nine. They're finally a couple and everything is going great. They share an apartment together; she's met his parents and they love her, and their dynamic at work is better than ever. It's Adam and Lexi against the world – from black-tie events to corporate meetings. That is until reality catches up to them…and fast.
Coming from different social backgrounds is only the least of their problems, and Adam and Lexi soon realize that getting into a relationship is the easy part. The hard part is making it last. When negative media takes a toll on Lexi, she lets her insecurities get the best of her. Not to mention a woman from Adam's past comes back and has Lexi questioning if she's right for Adam.
Adam and Lexi's love and trust for one another are put to the test. No one ever said being in a relationship was easy. For Adam and Lexi, it's getting too much to handle. What will happen to this couple as they navigate the ups and downs of their relationship? Is love more than enough to make it last?
