Global Governance and Its Effects on State and Law (Central and Eastern European Forum for Legal, Political, and Social Theory Yearbook)

The sixth volume in the series of the Central and Eastern European Forum for Legal, Political and Social Theory Yearbooks is focused on the effects of globalisation and global governance on state, law and society. It addresses the great structural and systemic changes in the fundamental constitutional and political concepts produced by the above mentioned phenomena. The main issues which are discussed in the book are the crisis of authority, the crisis of territoriality, the shifting constitutional geometry, the constitutional identity, the territorial irresponsibility of capital, the horisontalisation of human rights, the new constitutional and political roles of the transnational corporations and the global religions as well as the influence of the supranational jurisdictions on the supranational and national legal orders.
