What happens when romance collides with April Fool's Day?
Oh, No, You Didn't!
Lena Nelson Dooley
Miranda Lawrence's dream date is ruined when Doug Hamilton pulls an April Fool's trick on her. Will she ever be able to forgive him?

Where Angels Fear to Tread
Lisa Crane
Quinn Nichols, scarred in a cruel accident, has been hurt one too many times. But Rowan Hart, her cousin's best friend, sees beyond the scars to the woman Quinn truly is. Can he convince her the eyes of love see a different vision than most men do?

A Fool for Love
Anne Greene
A dream shattered – a love jilted – a heart broken. People change. Is there a second chance for love above the clouds?

Mirror, Mirror
J. A. Marx
Lonely and wounded from a past relationship, Narcisse de Coeur believes beauty, fame, and gold will help her snare the perfect knight. Oliver Deere interviews for the makeup artist position at Narcisse's unique boutique. Once he learns what really goes on in her shop, he changes his mind—until Tawny, the owner's niece, enters the storefront. Can genuine love prevail in a setting where "imitations" sell, or does everyone become love's fool?

April Foolishness
Marji Laine
In college, Michael Minchoit humiliated her with an April Fool's joke. Now he's back, handsome, smart, and engaging, but how can she even consider befriending him? Let alone go out with him. And that's exactly what Kate Rylander finds herself doing. Is she doomed to repeat history?

April Fool's Date
Patricia Pacjac Carroll
Elle Frazier grimaced. Once again, she was a bridesmaid walking. To add to her rotten mood, she was supposed to be writing the Great American Novel. So far, she had written two words – Chapter One. Oh, and tomorrow was April Fool's Day.
Nick Lambert didn't want a wife. He really wasn't ready to give up his freedom. Of course, he was lonely. According to his father, it was time to find the woman he couldn't live without. He scratched Dodger behind the ears. "Tomorrow, we'll go to the dog park. I promise." Can two lonely people find true love in a dog park on April Fool's Day?

Trading Faces
Sydnie Shreffler
Andi and Callie Perrin, identical twin sisters, always used to get a kick out of tricking people and switching places. Andi has spent the past four years secretly investigating a suspect in her best friend's murder. Derek Tucker, Andi's childhood best friend, comes home after a broken engagement. Unaware of her secret diversion, he tries to reestablish their friendship. When lies become second nature and the truth seems far hidden, Andi and Derek must choose between foolishly holding onto the past or leaping into the future.

April Fools In Love
Debut novelists: GuardianWolfKim Brown/Amanda Marie
High School students, Zeke and Esther, have been best friends for as long as they can remember. When Valentine's Day pressures to find a significant other reaches the breaking point, Esther hatches a plan that she promises will guarantee them dates. The catch – fooling everyone in town. Will the only people fooled be the two of them?

Fooled in Maple Ridge
Kathy Wall
Kathy Mathers returns to Maple Ridge, Texas, to visit her Aunt. Soon she becomes her aunt’s heir. Before she dies, Aunt Lib tells her to trust Wyatt Bailey, the man who is restoring her house. But soon Kathy wonders just who she can trust.

Fool Me Once, Fool Me Twice
Jackie Castle
Sage Dolan and Nikolai Prater made a pact that they would be friends forever. Nothing but friends. When Nikolai returned from the mission trip last year, Sage’s feelings for him exploded and her pact gets harder to keep. On April fool’s day, she receives a letter from a secret admirer.

Nikolai's life changed after the trip. He has to face his feelings for Sage. Pact or no pact, he needs to let her know how he feels. He sends her an anonymous love letter, but instead of love, he reaps the wild, whirlwind of Sage who is already angry about being made a fool of once.
