First Class Marriage: Relationship Lessons from Life on the Road Sven Zimmer
The divorce rate in the United States is currently around 50 percent. If you travel for work, the rate is even higher. What are you doing to maintain a healthy relationship? A divorce will cost you half of everything you own, sometimes even more. The financial loss is minor compared to the emotional toll and impact a divorce will have on you and your family. This book will take a look at some of the many challenges we face as professional travelers and hopefully lead you in the right direction to beat the odds. Within, are stories of people just like you, some successful at their marriage, and others not. Why make the same mistakes that others have already made; why not learn from the ones that have done it right? Discover the bad and try to avoid it, embrace the good and try to implement it in your own life. Written from the perspective of a pilot, intended for anyone that travels for a living.
