It is easy to become comfortable in a relationship. At times a woman may become so comfortable, that she takes her husband for granted. This may not be the intention, but with comfort comes routine, with routine comes a constant thought that your husband will always be there, and you begin to take advantage of him. You soon lose respect for him and he loses respect for you. This loss of respect turns into arguments over the slightest situation. With the lack of respect, communication deteriorates, resentment emerges, and the path to marriage destruction begins.

Remember the man you fell in love? You need to take steps toward learning how to keep that love alive and become friends again. It’s not everyday that you find someone to share the paths of life with. Cherish the time of growing into maturity together. Life situations are meant to keep us stronger. You grew together with the years invested in your marriage, you probably have children together, and now instead of remembering the good times, you tend to focus on everything your husband is doing wrong. Love in marriage is a gift that is not given out freely, it takes work, but it is worth it when you can live a life in pure happiness with the one that loves you for who you are.
