Would you like to spark a love of literature in your children, inspiring them to read more and read better?
Would you like to create moments and memories with your children that will last a lifetime?
Would you like to offer guidance and instruction to your children, teaching them to reason through their beliefs and values?
I believe these goals can be reached through reading together.
Our family made a decision to read one hundred books aloud together.This is the story of our journey, and we hope you find it interesting, informative and inspirational. More importantly, we hope you consider embarking on a similar adventure with your family.
