Five Short Health Articles: Thrombosis in Women, Water and Heart Attacks, Jaundice, The Causes and Treatments of Anemia, and a Pre-Diabetes Diagnosis Opportunity Kraig Grayson
Many people suffer from different ailments and medical conditions that are for the most part either preventable or can be controlled, and in some cases eradicated, if detected early. This book contains short articles on five of the most common ailments that affect men and women in one way or another: Thrombosis in Women, the correlation between Water and Heart Attacks, Jaundice, The Causes and Treatments of Anemia, and a Pre-Diabetes Diagnosis Opportunity.

Thrombosis in Women has seen a dramatic increase over the past decade. That article discusses the risk factors and what can be done to curb the condition. Water has a direct correlation to heart attacks, in a positive way that is. That article shows how water can help save your life. Jaundice is a condition that affects everyone, from newborn babies to senior citizens. The article discusses Jaundice is newborns by mentioning the causes, symptoms, and treatments that can and have been used to cure the condition. Another condition that affects millions of persons in Anemia. That article goes into detail discussing what Anemia is, the symptoms, causes, and treatment. The final article discusses the opportunity that a pre-diabetes diagnosis presents to affected individuals. Basically, you will learn what pre-diabetes diagnosis is and how it can be beneficial to those who fall into that category.

It is my hope that after reading the five articles, you will be better informed about the conditions and see what you may need to do if you or a loved one suffers from any of them. In the end, I wish everyone good health.
