Rediscovering Peace (Military Love Book 1) Steffy Rogers
What do you do when your world comes crashing down on you?

Skye Donovan has spent her whole life moving with her parents from one duty station to another. Each time has forced her to say goodbye more times than she can count. When her dad finally retires from the U.S. Army and they settle down in Savannah GA, she finds herself in the strong arms of Oliver Nelson. Skye finally has it all - a loving fiancé, the career of her dreams and friends she can always count on. But one day everything changes.

After all that she has been through, will Skye be able to pick up the pieces and open up her heart again?

Braden Parker has spent eight long years getting over the one that got away. Even being engaged to another woman couldn't keep the thoughts of Skye at bay. Just when he thought he will never see her again, fate brings her back into his life, but she is broken.

Now that he has found her again can he convince her that their love is worth fighting for and that they can face their demons together?
