TO LOVE A WOUNDED SOLDIER

The siege at Kimberley has lasted for four months and one day. Thaddeus Bennett was there for it all. Just when he thought he'd manage to get out with nothing more than a strong desire for a cold drink and water to wash his face, everything goes dark.

Molly Alexander has worked with the Red Cross for a long time now. She's used to seeing the troop trains come in loaded with men. She's used to seeing those same men either heal or die. But she's not used to her heart skipping a beat when a stretcher goes past.

Thaddeus and Molly develop an immediate bond and attraction, but not everything is quite so simple. When a doctor gives Thaddeus news he never thought he'd hear, will it bring him closer to Molly? Or will it tear them apart forever?

A Boss's Forbidden Temptation

What happens when a maid finds herself in love with one of the wealthiest men in the country? That love, at first, is difficult to realize because of social pressures. But when a change of events occurs, the couple – Caroline and Liam – find themselves in a whirlwind romance that is sure to dazzle the reader.
The only barrier to their love is difference. She is black, he is white. She is poor, he is rich. His parents would never let him marry below his social rank. But then the unexpected happens and suddenly all the barriers to happiness have gone away, and they can start living the life they have always dreamed of. And this generosity flows to their friends and family as well. The chemistry between the two protagonists is awe-inspiring.

This book will make you feel like you are in the driver's seat of a romantic love story and will leave you feeling like you have scored the ultimate catch – a man that is at once generous, kind, hot, and successful beyond anyone's wildest dreams.
