The Two-Wheeler Michael Acton
Young Adult Fiction/Suspense: Nothing much exciting ever happens in the small town of Lebanon and most of the residents are happy about that. However, one night the unspeakable would occur that would shock the town out of its quiet and restful slumber; and thrust three 11 year old boys into events normally reserved only for adults. The Two-Wheeler is a coming of age story of three young boys who stumble into a murder in a small Midwestern town for which they believe they are the prime suspects. With the help of an unlikely ally, they devise a cunning plan to reveal the true killer and his accomplice; thereby bringing to light the hidden reason for the killing in the sleepy little town and the unexpected mastermind behind the crime. During this fast paced adventure, the three boys discover much about themselves and the good things they are capable of doing together; both as the kids they are today and the men they will one day become.
