Travel Every Day: Transforming Your Life with the Trip of a Lifetime John Ennis

Picture yourself atop the Eiffel Tower, gazing out over the twinkling lights of Paris. Imagine sipping an espresso at a caffè in Venice. Feel the sun on your face as you wander through the bustling streets of Rio de Janeiro.

Anyone who has ever traveled internationally knows that it will change your life. In his innovative and inspiring travel-planning guide, John Michael Ennis shares his extensive advice on travel planning, based on his own experiences, and shows you how you can enrich your life well beyond the trip you are planning.

Ennis teaches that, by building your life around your preparations, you can regularly pursue international travel alongside your ordinary life. Central to this approach is exploring cultural aspects such as history, music, cuisine, and language, so the preparation process opens your mind up to whole new worlds and enhances your quality of life on a daily basis.

The guide discusses picking your destination, finding a quality travel partner, handling the challenges of time and money, and learning the basics of a foreign language—something that's easier than you think, that will greatly maximize your travel experience.

Start preparing for your next adventure, and begin transforming your life today!
