Lost and Found Family Leigh Riker
Is their loss too much to overcome?

It's been a year since her son died, and Emma Mallory can't forgive herself. She's dealing with her loss the only way she knows how—throwing herself into work. But spending all her time growing her business takes her further and further away from her husband.

Christian is finding his own way through the grief. He's determined that whatever happens, he won't lose his wife, too. If he can just remind Emma what they had, and could have again, he might be able to bring her back. Even forgive her. If not, they might lose each other for good…
