Mated (A Paranormal Bear Shifter Romance) (Coveted Book 2) Viola Notte
Back in the city after a harrowing experience in the forests of Kentucky, curvy Suzy still longs for Sam, the bear shifter who saved her from a near fatal attack and made long, passionate love to her, curves and all. Unable to stop thinking about the chiseled hunk, she fills her time working and socializing in a feeble attempt to forget about him.

But little does Suzy know that she made a strong impression on Sam, and he wants her back. He wants nothing to do with the forced mating that is supposed to occur between himself and Amelia, the sinister leader of the Devil's Gorge Clan.

Amelia is scheming to mate with Sam. And the only way for Sam to remain head of his clan is to marry another bear shifter. But where is he to find one? He doesn't have to, because it turns out that an old medicine man can make one out of Suzy.

The question is, will they be able to complete the ceremony in time? Or will Amelia and her brothers get to Suzy first and ruin any chance for Sam to find the only thing he's been searching for: a woman with curves who can handle his big bear paws, and a family of cubs to settle down with.
