Dirty Little Secret Amber Rides
(Intended for mature audiences (18+) for theme, language, and content.)

Excerpt:

Four steps closed the gap between us. I only meant to intimidate her, to use my body to coerce her, but the second I was near enough to touch her, my senses became overloaded. I could smell the sweet, clean scent coming from her skin. I could feel her nervous trembling.
I wanted more. Badly.
I reached out and ran the paintbrush from her ankle to her knee. When she squirmed, I continued up to her thigh. She shivered, and her breathing quickened.
“Oh, you like that?” I murmured. “Or maybe I should stop?”
“Yes.”
The word was a breathy whisper, and I had no clue if she was answering the first question, or the second. I didn’t care, either.

Cutter Lane is not a nice guy. He is the kind of man who burns down a house when his ex cheats on him, then sleeps with that same ex, just because he can. He is the kind of man your mother warned you about - the kind you'll love to hate and the kind you can't wait to tame.

And he's just driven his truck and his ego straight in Melissa Hanover's rose-tinted world.

Melissa is so unlike Cutter that they might as well be fire and ice. She is the girl next door. She is the perfect, all-American sweetheart. And she has playing nice down to an art. Her life has been mapped out since birth, and she's never given a second thought to how it will unfold. Because it will always be perfect.

Until Cutter Lane skids to a stop in front of her, slinging mud into her hair and chaos into her heart.

In one mean, hot moment, Cutter has Melissa second guessing all of her priorities and questioning her morals. And with one look, Melissa has Cutter wishing he was the kind of guy who bought roses and sipped wine. The only problem? Neither of them is willing to admit it.

But it's hard to keep that kind of attraction down for long - especially when life keeps throwing you together.

Funny, touching, and filled with passion, Dirty Little Secret is a story that's destined to please.

Pre-Release Praise:

"Smart, sexy, and unlike any other book I've read."

"If you want something more fun than you average romance novel, but still need that chemistry and passion...Let Cutter Lane show you what he can do with a paintbrush. You won't be disappointed!"

All books in the Dirty Series are standalone novels with happy endings. The characters may have more stories to tell in the future, but for now, they are spending all their time behind closed doors. For obvious reasons. ;)
