Shaman, Lover, Warrior: An Urban Fantasy Thriller (Olivia Lawson Techno-Shaman Book 5) M. Terry Green
Before the airliner can touch down, techno-shaman Olivia Lawson senses something is wrong in Los Angeles. The happy homecoming she and SK had envisioned evaporates without ever beginning.

But the greatest blow comes from old friends, as well as a few persistent enemies. In Livvy's absence, not only has the shaman world changed but so have the people.

As Livvy struggles to hold on to loved ones, her past and future unexpectedly collide. Caught between the Multiverse and the real world, and saving herself or doing right, Livvy learns a final truth: the real measure of love isn't fighting for someone, it's dying for them.

Interview with the Author

Q - What was the inspiration for this book?

A - The very word 'shaman' comes from Siberia. I simply couldn't end the series without exploring that. Though the story returns to its urban fantasy roots in Los Angeles, it was my chance to connect Livvy with an even wider experience of shamanism, not to mention some truly nasty characters!

Q - Is this really the end of the series?

A - For now, yes. But I never say never, especially when it comes to the Multiverse. I've been so amazed and delighted with reader reaction that it's hard to turn away. As Nabakov wrote, "Ink, a Drug." But I felt Livvy's arc was complete, and that this story was a good stopping point.

Q - What's next?

A - Writing, writing, and then more writing. Each new book is a challenge and an opportunity. I'm excited to get to the laptop in the morning. I'm happy to spend all day with my characters. I'm constantly on the lookout for any new insight into the creative process or the tenets of writing that I can learn and use. If I'm not writing, I'm reading about writing. As far as next books, I'm creating a dystopian science fiction series. I'm really looking forward to bringing those books to Livvy's readers!

Shaman, Lover, Warrior: An Urban Fantasy Thriller is the fifth and final novel in the Olivia Lawson Techno-Shaman series. The suggested reading order is:

- Shaman, Healer, Heretic
- Shaman, Friend, Enemy
- Shaman, Sister, Sorceress

- Shaman, Priestess, Pawn
- Shaman, Lover, Warrior
