Crazy Creek Sarah Simpson Bivens
Latisha Jamison, a young, idealistic social worker, finds herself on the wrong side of the law when she decides to advocate for one of the mountain men who is making moonshine. If her efforts fail, she could not only lose her career but find herself in jail. Crazy Creek is written by an award-winning writer, Sarah Simpson Bivens, who takes her readers horseback riding into the beautiful mountains of East Tennessee. She spins a story filled with suspense, mystery, comedy and romance as only a native of the region can. Set in 1972 before distilleries became legal in Gatlinburg, Emmett Moss is a character the reader won't soon forget.
