Beautiful Closed Adoption by "Jersey Rules" Attorneys a'la Rosie: Expose` of the "Dead Sibling Effect" Dave Archuletta

..."Beautiful Wrongful Adoption," It happens, and it happens a lot more often than anyone would want to think or hear about. Meaning, ...there are a lot more people out there who know more, but lack a will or testament to do or say anything at all about this little unknown case: ..."A Mind Spinning Debacle," justly defines as title or the right phrase kept in mind whenever I think of the ways and means on how my "lost," grievance-by-decision handed from the Office of Attorney Ethics, then became an my appeal "won" after presented to the New Jersey State Supreme Court Disciplinary Review Board. Moreover, and only then, mandated is this original grievance, sent back to the Office of Attorney Ethics, and it was upon this entity's own self-governing measure of audacity, by new secretary named Julius Feinson had sent me different notice. He in essence said, whereupon an attorney's previous lies, and subsequently told new lies to maintain a patterened significance to the old - had no effect on any Esquire taxed capacity for distinction of law! ...This greivance was subsequently therein found without merit, and case closed...

New Jersey Court Rule 1: 20-3 d [3]

"The secretary, with concurrence by a designated public member, shall decline jurisdiction if the facts stated in the inquiry or grievance, IF TRUE, would not constitute unethical conduct or incapacity."

However, that attorney skate is another issue, ...and story?

Yet, on the future date May 17, 2007, a Rosie O'Donnell funded "Children of the World" Adoption Agency had committed its own "Corporate Suicide." By doing so, and in such unspoken manner, time had passed by design. Poignantly now, to our time when hardly anyone knows anything about this company's spotted works history!

This is the same past where stays hidden a collection of Wrongful Adoptions. And if any or all were Open Public Records Act access investigated, they would find each case having also a dated occurrence coinciding within the long tenured years of given "humanities," all serviced by company Executive Director, Mrs. Veronica Serio.

In October of 2006, this is the sacrificial woman [Lamb] whose "appearance" was forced, and therein scheduled for a March 2007 showing in front of a license revocation hearing. This stance ordered by the New Jersey Office of Administrative Law, and before the all-honorable Court Judge Carol Cohen. However, as happened by plan, "Children of the World" would instead let its own agency attorney concede all by registered letter; the quiet surrendering of company License of Certification to the New Jersey Department of Human Services Office of Licensing Cheif of Staff, Gary Sefchik - now retired...
