CHECKING OUT Things aren't going well for Rob. Stuck with a girl he loathes in a town he hates, he is lost. He needs to get out, he needs something more. And then he gets the opportunity of a life time, to go and live with his Aunt and Uncle in Cape Town. Will this be that something he has always been looking for, and do they really have lions chasing zebras down the main roads, tribal warfare around every corner, and all live in little mud huts? It is time for Rob to check out of the world he has lived in all his life and venture into the unknown.
