Men In Kilts Amy Stranhouse
William is an extremely handsome Scottish millionaire, whose love for men is still hidden in the shadows of his closet. His new gay club, Men In Kilts, has strict rules. They tell William he must announce to the world that he is gay, or be booted out of the club.
William must tell his staunchly homophobic dad and bosses, as well as give the heart breaking news to his female fiance, that he wont be marrying anyone from here on in, unless they happen to be a man.
William's boyfriend catches him fooling around and William's world begins to unravel. The voice of his dead mother, along with a psychic fortune teller machine lead him back to Scotland, and into the arms of a shifter who has waited for centuries to be William's forever mate.
