Lily Wellington, a curvy, rare female bear shifter, lives in Bear Canyon and works in her brother's sandwich shop. She'd love to get married and start a family one day, especially after she sees her brother find happiness, but the only man who holds her interest is her brother's best friend, the town sheriff, and he finds her disgusting.

Bear shifter, and town sheriff, Drew Riemann has been in love with Lily since the moment they first met. Unfortunately, he made a promise to her brother and has been paying the price for nearly four years. When Luke gets married, Drew decides he'd rather break his word than live in agony one more day.

Drew and Lily start dating, but when Lily finds out his plans for the future don't include her, she runs. She refuses to waste time with a liar; regardless of the way he makes her feel. In an effort to move on, Lily makes a decision that puts her in a dangerous, life threatening situation. Luckily, her mate won't let her go without a fight.
