Daughter of the Abyss (For the Love of Evil, #1) Ann Mayburn
Book 1 in the 'For the Love of Evil' series.

Kazan, Russia, 1870

Natalia Shura, the daughter of Asmodeus, High Prince of Hell and Keeper of the Deadly Sin Lust, is unaware of the nature of her birth. When her demonic side begins to awaken, her world becomes dominated by dark passions and deadly cravings that make Natalia fear she's losing her mind. But her love has been foretold as the only thing that can stop Belal and his allies, and they will do anything to prevent her ascension. In order to help her survive Natalia's father has sent his best demonic warrior, Raum, to not only protect her, but to feed her every growing carnal hungers.

Belal, High Prince of Hell and Keeper of the Deadly Sin Sloth, is expanding his power by trafficking opium. He revels in the results, and as sloth begins to overtake the mortal realm, all of Hell suffers. The balance of power in Hell, as well as the fate of the Universe, will be decided by a half-demon peasant girl.

Facing assassins, avenging angels, Hell's deadly politics—and her real father—Natalia must accept the love of more than one man and embrace her demonic heritage as a Princess of the Abyss. If she doesn't, all that she cares about will be destroyed, and Heaven and Hell will plunge into Chaos.

Warning: This book contains all kids of deliciously kinkery including menages, F/F, spanking, bondage, and a dominant male demon determined to prove that he can give Natalia everything she wants, inside the bedroom and out.
