Human Trafficking in Pakistan: A Savage and Deadly Reality for Women and Children Steven Lee Douglas
Thousands of women and children are trafficked to, from and thru Pakistan every year. They are trafficked to Pakistan for the sex industry and as cheap labor in garment factories. Children are also trafficked to Pakistan to labor in the clothing industry and as recently reported in the world media, Pakistani toddlers and young children are sold to Middle Eastern countries to be camel jockeys and to be used for the black-market human organ transplant industry.
