Nina, Jordan, Bretta, and Amber are fly, successful, professional women. When you look at them, you just know they have it all together. However, these four friends share a secret that they keep from the world and even each other: their financial status isn’t everything it appears to be. Although their outward appearance and status in the city suggest otherwise, they are living paycheck to paycheck, and beyond. But one day, everything changes. The four women are forced to confront their financial struggles and embark upon a new life—a life that includes lifestyle changes to achieve their ultimate goal of financial freedom. Follow these ladies as they discover their authentic purpose, and learn about the steps they took to start their journey to become phenomenal and financially free.
