Sleepless Mishaps Sylvia E. Alves
This novella, is simply an creative book about a successful young woman who had a strange sleeping disorder. Doctors confirmed that as she got older so would her condition and it would soon go away. As you travel this journey with her and her family, you will experience suspense that will keep you turning the pages as her days progress. You will quickly learn that the outward appearance does seem as great as one may think. Do you really know your family and your surroundings?....I am a women of many talents. However, this is my first journey down the road of creating a fiction novella. By no means are there any realistic events or reality names apart of this book pertaining to my/or anyone else's personal life.
