Stepbrother Bear: Part One Rosette Bolter
Five years has passed since Bianca has seen her rebellious stepbrother, Aiden Phillips. On the day of their sister Lara's wedding, he decides to surprise the whole family and turn up unannounced. Bianca has been fearing this day for a while, given how much hell he put her through back when they were teenagers. But she also figures that Aiden must have grown up now and moved on from his grudge against her.

She couldn't be further from the truth...

Almost as soon as he arrives, the mind games and childish pranks begin again, and as always, Bianca is the punchline to every joke. However as she later discovers, there is more to Aiden's past than anyone even realizes.

For once they're alone together, and he is about to share with her a dark, sizzling secret, that will only draw Bianca further into the abyss that is her stepbrother, Aiden. The only question is, will she be able to get herself out in time?

Or will his bear be far too much for her to handle...?
