Erin and the Pink Playground (Erin and the Magic Bed Adventures Book 1) Ru Morris, Steph Hollington
A bedtime story for my daughter Erin; published as a birthday present. Plenty of toilet humour which the kids love and just a little bit of magic to help things along.
Published as a present this is short story;I've found it to be the perfect length as a bedtime story for the three girls in the book, all of whom seem to greatly enjoy the bogie and fart references. The main problem I have is that they're usually laughing to hard to go sleep by the time I've finished reading.
