Learn To Hate Me Gracie Strattyn
Kelsey Norwood is wild and reckless, a ticking bomb waiting to explode. Ever since her parents divorced, she has caused problems for everyone around her. However, when her mother decides to send her away to her father’s house, everything changes. Kelsey knows that her family is keeping secrets from her. Strange things are happening. Why can she run faster than ever before? Why does she seem to crave raw meat and suddenly hate being indoors? Most importantly, she notices that Carson McDowell, her father's employee, seems to hate her for no particular reason. He triggers something in her memory, something she can't quite bring to light, and it has been haunting her from the moment she saw him. Frustrated, she goes to her grandmother and demands answers. Little does she know what she’s really getting herself into or what her curiosity might cost her.
