Alatya Reborn: Alatya (Alatya Series Book 1) Charles Arien
Alatya. An advanced sophisticated android discovered in a wrecked ship on a dust planet, is bought to Planet Earth in the Terran system and revived. At first, she appears child-like and harmless. However, after an ancient tribal ceremony links her inner being with a wolf, an entirely complex creature is unleashed in the world. Alatya is volatile, comfortably Bi-Sexual, capable of fierce loyalty but also deeds of ruthless destruction. Alatya is basically a lost entity who discovers her entire reason for being has long since ceased to be before her incarnation. Her story therefore is the search for a reason to exist and to learn all about the life around her. Her challenge is to adapt to it, to challenge it, to even if she can, better it. When she encounters what she considers to be evil or corruption, she simply goes about destroying it without regard to legal or international rules. Her induction into various forms of martial arts plays a large part in the story, and coupled with her own built in talents from a far distant alien planet; she makes a formidable foe when confronted. This, the first volume of a Sci-Fi action series lets the reader follow Alatya's development, growing awareness, and fighting abilities that come to the fore as she battles a mysterious cult named The Kuji, who invade her Foster Mother's home, My Eden.
The reader is invited to join Alatya on her mission of discovery. Alatya Reborn.
