Alex and the Prince (Call Me Alexander) (Volume 1) Elaine Arthur
When eleven-year-old Alex misses his curfew, he gets grounded and is unable to go back to the woods, where he loves to spend his free time. That very night, much to his delight, his active mind takes him to his favorite place in the world, through his dreams. They might seem like ordinary dreams, and many times Alex won’t give them a second thought. However, if there is one thing that Alex and those closest to him will soon discover it is that his dreams are not something that anyone should ignore. Little does he know that those special dreams of his beloved woods will give him the clues he will need and show him the path to follow in order to rescue his friend when she suddenly goes missing!
