* This disc is for Computer Use Only ****

Before the Internet sports fans depended on their favorites coming to life when it arrived upon their doorsteps! And then America's favorite sport was baseball! As American as hotdogs, Mom and apple pie! And the publication of choice was called Baseball Digest also known simply as the Baseball Bible.

It republished the best stories from the newspapers and magazines that offered statistics you could get nowhere else such as the biggest gainers and losers in batting averages from year to year and pitchers records against other clubs.

It offered you the Whos Who in baseball, teams, stats and bios and now you can read them all here! This collection from the 1940s through the 1960s gives you a unique historical look at how this game became great and meet the original players that did it!
