Marietta hated living in a small town. She had come to Merrillville because her parents had believed that she was headed down a path of depravity. For the most part, she was a good girl, though she did have her needs, desires and fantasies. Enter Jamie, the tall brooding stranger from out of town. At first the townsfolk liked him, until he got romantically involved with Marietta. Some of Her old conquests felt that he should leave town. Marietta was having none of it and she didn’t care at all if people talked, so she arranged a dirty sex game with Jamie and another girl, partly for pleasure and partly to tell the townsfolk to leave here alone. She didn’t care what anyone but Jamie thought. With a jealous ex boyfriend, now a cop, as well as the boyfriend of the girl that they seduce, trouble ensues. Jamie takes off after being harassed by the cop leaving Marietta alone at her house. Will he come back for her? Will he be her knight in shining armor? She longs to escape from small town life but she also longs for love.
