Things a Woman Should Know About Seduction Emily Dubberley
"Beauty is how you feel inside, and it reflects in your eyes. It is not something physical."
—Sophia Loren
Sophisticated humor, words of wisdom, quotations from history's famous female lovers, and practical advice for women who are bent on seduction are juxtaposed with stylish photos in this delightful collection of thoughts about sensual love. Readers will find short chapters that touch on seductive perfumes, clothes, fabrics, and colors. There is also advice on the best times and places for seduction, seductive body language, mood music, and even creating a seductive boudoir. Photos of Mae West, Marilyn Monroe, Sophia Loren, Ginger Rodgers dancing with Fred Astaire, and Vivian Leigh held in Clark Gable's embrace in Gone With the Wind are just a few among dozens of illustrations that will evoke both sensual and nostalgic memories. A few of this book's epigrams are anonymous, for instance, "If love is blind, why is lingerie so popular?" Still others are words of wisdom from knowledgeable women like Marlene Dietrich: "The average man is more interested in a woman who is interested in him than he is in a woman—any woman—with beautiful legs." Ms. Dietrich was, of course, world-famous for her own beautiful legs. Photos—many in color—on most two-page spreads.
